

It is a disgrace to let anyone use the airways in an obvious partisan attack and biased report and still consider that they are operationg under the rules of the broadcast industry and the FCC.
.When does your chairman stand up against his mentors and really do something for the American people